Funeral Services This Morning For Mrs. Gilman

Funeral services for Mrs. Byrd Gilman, 83, Hemet resident for the past three years, will be held today (Tuesday) at 10:30 a.m. at Harford Funeral home, with the Rev. Carl B. Johnson, pastor of the Hemet Methodist church, presiding. Burial will follow in San Jacinto Valley cemetery.

Mrs. Gilman died at Hemet Community hospital early Saturday.

She was born December 13, 1875, in Springfield, Missouri. She had resided in California since 1903. Her husband, Dick Gilman, preceded her in death, in December, 1947.

Survivors include three children, Mrs. Billie Counts of Hemet, Mrs. Phyllis Bishop of Alhambra, and Homer Gilman, of Cardiff, five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She resided at the farm home of her daughter, Mrs. Ford Counts, west of Hemet on Sanderson street.
