Wilma S. Fisher of Sequim died in Port Angeles at age 79.

She was born in Lompoc, Calif., to William McKinley and Mabel Oley (Peugh) Stockton.

She married Frank B. Fisher Jr. in Redondo Beach, Calif., on Aug. 28, 1948.

Mrs. Fisher, who lived in Lakewood, Colo., for 30 years, retired in 1984 from Colorado's Jefferson County School District, where she was a third-grade teacher and media specialist.

In 1986, the Fishers moved to Sequim, where she was a member of Chapter HZ of P.E.O.

Survivors include her husband of Sequim, daughter Lani Fisher of Sequim; son Frank Fisher III of Port Orchard; and one granddaughter Shannan.

Services: None. The family requests no flowers. Drennan-Ford Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials: Cottey College, 1000 W. Austin St., Nevada, MO 64772.
